Campus Doll To Share Queen Spotlight With Six Eastern Conference Beauties At Dance

Betty Petras, brunette SAC beauty, will be crowned Eastern Conference Queen by Frank Grizzelle, ASB president, this evening at the Eastern Conference Dance at the Pasadena Civic Auditorium.

The Elliott Brothers will furnish the music for the dance, where Eastern Conference queens from six other conference colleges, Chaffey, Mt. San Antonio, San Bernardino, Riverside, Orange Coast and Fullerton will be crowned.

Miss Petras, treasurer of Las Hidasgas, women's service club, came to California from Miami, Fla. Her father, a lieutenant colonel in the U.S. Marine Corps, was transferred to El Toro.

A second semester freshman at SAC, Miss Petras is a general education major and sings with the Mello-Dons. She has also studied piano in hopes of becoming a concert pianist.

Carol Hughes, who also ran for queen, is a member of Las Meninas and is freshman representative to the Associated Women Student. Sharon Davis, the third candidate for queen, is a second semester freshman and a member of Las Hidasgas.

ASB Leaders Look To Next Conference

Seven student presidents representing all Eastern Conference junior colleges, passed and signed the first constitution for the conference at last Thursday's student government conference here on campus.

Chaffey, Mt. San Antonio, San Bernardino, Riverside, Orange Coast, Fullerton, and Santa Ana were represented in the numerous workshops, general assembly, and at the banquet in the Student Union.

Student Union

Two hundred and fifty student leaders were present at the banquet in the Student Union where John Bellows, vice-president of the Santa Ana College Board of Trustees gave a warm welcome to the visitors to SAC.

Dr. Daniel C. McNaughton, director of SAC welcomed the students at the general assembly during the afternoon.

Grizzelle Presides

Presiding officer for the day, Frank Grizzelle, SAC student president stated that the conference was "extremely successful." Grizzelle also announced that John Brown of Chaffey College will be presiding officer for the Regional Student Government Conference at Chaffey College, March 17.

Student Leaders from Santa Ana College attending are Grizzelle, Dick Morris, Jon Winter, Bud Dowling, Dick Church, Carl Sawyer, Susan Walker, Jerry May, Bill Dozier, Barbara Kramp, Bob Munro, and Sam Peden. Russ Behrens, last semester Don president, will preside as one of the conference parliamentarians. Miss Kramp will be a member of the resolutions committee.

Catalina Trip

Following the regional conference, delegates from SAC will attend the State Conference at Catalina Island, April 26 to 28. Those attending are Grizzelle, Don Brettnier, AMS president; Sam Peden, assemblies commissioner; Rose-laine Chapman, AWS president; and Marilyn Nishioka, associated student secretary. Dr. John Johnson, dean of men; and Miss Agness Todd Miller, dean of women, will accompany the students.

El Don Crew Travels To SC

El Don has entered seven phases of competition at the University of Southern California's annual Newspaper day, tomorrow on the S.C. campus.

Carl Sawyer, El Don editor, Don Mitchell, feature editor, Jim Davis sports editor, and Barbara Kramp, social editor will attend the meeting with other school journalists from all over Southern California. Journalism advisor, Carl Venstrom, and Mr. and Mrs. John "Sky" Dunlap will also attend the journalism meeting.

El Don is entered in the best news story contest, best feature story, best editorial, best sports story, best news photo, best sports photo, and best front page make up contests. El Don staffers will be in competition with more than 200 other junior college students.

Speakers include Carrol Parcher, editor-publisher, Glendale News-Press; Jerry Maher, labor editor, Mirror-News; Dorothy Gooden, promotion manager for Time, Inc.; Burt Sims, picture editor, Los Angeles Examiner; and Louis E. Scott, Foot, Cone and Belding advertising agency. A special sports panel will be an afternoon feature.

SAC STUDENTS VISIT NAVAL HOSPITAL SHIP

All interested SAC students are invited to make a trip to Long Beach harbor tomorrow to visit the U.S. Navy hospital ship, Haven, Miss Marie Pound, SAC nurse, announced today.

Those planning to make the trip should contact Miss Pound today in J105. The group will start from her office at eight o'clock tomorrow morning and be back on campus at one p.m.

Because of the increased number of navy ships in the harbor, the Haven has been anchored at Long Beach as a hospital to take the added load from the naval hospital at Corona.

Dedication Of Hammond Hall, Bill Cook Gymnasium Will Highlight May Science Fair

Dedication of SAC's new science building, Hammond Hall, and Bill Cook Gym will be one of the highlights of the First Annual Science Fair to be held May 3, 4 and 5.

Dana King Hammond, first president of SAC, for whom the science building was named, will be present for the dedication ceremonies. Bill Cook, SAC athletic director and a staff member of the college since 1927 will also be present.

An awards banquet Saturday night in the Student Union will wind up the three-day event, with outstanding scientists invited to meet with the student exhibitors.

Same Arrangement

Because of its success in the Third Annual Business Show the same physical arrangement in the gym will be used for the Science Fair, Henri Lirette, chairman of physical arrangements stated today.

Each of the exhibiting students from 13 public high schools, 7 junior highs, Mater Dei High, and other parochial and private schools in Orange county will have a small space in the gym to show his project in one of the science fields, chemistry, earth sciences, mechanics, electronics, mathematics or biological science.

County's Largest

The SAC gym was chosen by the Orange County Science and Teachers Association because it provides the largest gymnasium floor in the county for maximum exhibit space.

Judging and preview sessions will be held Thursday, and a school-day program Friday to permit thousands of science students to visit the fair from schools throughout the county.

Student Exhibit

The entire college will hold open house Saturday, May 5, with the Associated Students, Board of Education, the faculty and their wives participating, with the science faculty taking a special part.

GYM TRANSFORMED FOR BUSINESS — This panoramic photo inside Cook Gym reveals how the Orange County Business Show occupied the entire main floor with exhibits and displays of business equipment, office machinery, advertising and related material. The SAC Future Business Leaders Club exhibited historic business machines, which soon will be in a permanent museum display in Room E-44. Thousands of visitors and students saw the show and many participated in the vocational panels. (Cal Stille Photo)

Deplorable Condition Exists

Here at Santa Ana College we have a beautiful campus, but parking conditions still leave much to be desired.

Lazy students who don't want to walk from the west end of the campus to classes at the east end are blocking exits and entrance drives around the college.

Some students apparently think they have to display their cars by parking them on the lawn islands surrounding parking lots. This makes the campus look like something resembling a junk yard.

Students and faculty have been screaming about the parking and all agree that something should be done.

Frank Grizzelle, student president, should feel obligated to the college and associated students to get something done about the deplorable condition. Our college will become a scrap pile if a few cars are allowed to park on the lawns.

COLLEGE PLAYERS PREP FOR 'BERKELEY SQUARE'

"In all respects, this year has been one of the most successful seasons for the SAC Drama department", said Lee Ford, drama instructor.

"The two previous productions, 'Importance of Being Earnest' and 'Playboy of the Western World' were of exceptional quality and calibre for a college the size of SAC and the facilities the type of Studio A."

"Berkeley Square" is the third of four College Players productions this year.

Cast and crew of "Berkeley Square" are polishing lines, costumes, and sets for presentation, scheduled for March 13 through 17. Final dress rehearsals and last minute arrangements are being made.

If a stray Don should wander into Studio A, he would find Harold Alexander and Beverly Malinowski, as the leads, Peter and Helen, rehearsing their love scene, Kate and Tom, in the midst of a family quarrel with Mona Haworth as mother, Lady Ann, enjoying the quarrel immensely. Hal George as Mr. Throstle would be muttering Latin incantations with the rest of the cast looking on in amazement.

Tossing lines back and forth are Bud Dowling as Major Clinton, and Karen Tilley as Miss Barrymore; Dale Fowler as Lord Stanley, Dick Sarver as the "very German" Duke of Cumberland; and Ted Hallahan as the Ambassador and Karole Krupp as Marjorie Frant.

Others in the cast are Coralie Fox and Donna Stark, two maids, one 18th century and one of the 20th century.

Nobility will be represented by Nancy Neumann as the charming Duchess of Devonshire.

Assistant to the director is Michael Halloran.

¡Caramba!

By
El Don Mitchell

DOCTOR — A terrible malady is sweeping through the El Don newsroom this week. Photographer is not getting pictures in on time. Reporters are lolling over typewriters. Editor Carl Sawyer is hollaring louder than usual at everybody. It must be spring fever. . . . The time when a young man's fancy turns to baseball.

EVERYBODY'S GOT IT — Spring fever has hit the student union crowd the hardest. Most of them are getting too tired to walk to the wastebaskets. Trash is littered all over the floor, approaching ankle depths around three in the afternoon. Frank Grizzelle and his student government should get hot on this and ask students to keep the union clean or close it down for a week.

SCRUB COACH — Ray Wilsey, Don quarterback in 1949 when SAC went to the little rose bowl, is assistant coach at University of Washington now. Wilsey was just appointed this week.

Spring Prompts Fancy Dress

SMALL PRICE FOR EL DON COMPARED TO CITY PAPER

Did you know that the El Don uses $5 worth of white newsprint every time it goes to press, versus $25,000 worth used just on weekdays by the Los Angeles Examiner.

More startling than that, every day that the Los Angeles Examiner prints, the press uses enough ink to fill a swimming pool 20 by 40 feet, and ten feet deep.

BIG SHOTS — El Don and an article on Adlai Stevenson got a rise out of the San Jose State, Daily Spartan. San Jose story, however, said that Adlai was viewed by 3,000 students. Walt Taylor who is staffing the Spartan after doing El Don last semester, noted on a copy he sent, "population increase???"

Issues of El Don are sent to such faraway places as Mexico City, Canada, Northern Europe, and the majority of the forty-eight states in the USA. Receiving the copies are alumni and college newspaper staffs.

In exchange, the circulation manager for El Don receives newspapers from New England colleges, the College of Southern Georgia, pamphlets from Mexico City, and Canada. Papers and yearbooks also arrive from over Europe.

Each issue that is sent, is folded, wrapped, and glued in an addressed wrapper by members of the El Don staff. They are the stamped and posted, destined for major points in the Western Hemisphere.

BEST ON RECORD BE DAYS ENJOYED BY SPECTATORS

The third annual Business Education Days, held at Santa Ana College Tuesday and Wednesday of last week turned out to be the most successful in history.

Highlighting the two day program was the Orange County Business Show in Bill Cook Gymnasium. The Show featured exhibits of many Orange County business firms.

During BE Days, college and high school students were taken on tours of the Show, and a fashion show was given for college students presenting the fashions of Rankins Dept. Store in Santa Ana, and Hill's Inc. Clothiers.

Students Feted

Student representatives of Orange County schools were feted at a banquet in the college cafeteria Tuesday evening.

Two panels, especially created for college students were conducted. These were general business opportunities and special fields in business panels.

During the afternoon, three panels were given for the high school students attending. Included in the panels were subjects, general business and public service, marketing and distribution, and business careers for women. Buffums of Santa Ana presented their Young Careerists in a fashion show.

Two Speakers

Don Java Mugs Cafe Specialty

Coffee mugs and pennants with Santa Ana College insignia will soon be on sale in the Snack Bar, according to college business manager, Dick Morris.

Black mugs with college insignia monogrammed in old English will be sold for $1.20 and $1.75. Pennants will retail at $1.26. These articles are being purchased from the McDowell Company to help promote school spirit and to aid the general Associated Student fund.

Articles now on sale with SAC insignias are cigarette lighters, pencils, rooters' caps, and specialty coffee mugs.

PHILLIPS HALL SLOWLY RISING

Floors for Phillips Hall, except the auditorium floor, have been poured, and wall panels are being cast on the classroom and band section floors and on three specially erected skids.

After the 11 panels have been poured they must set for two weeks before another layer, with anti-bonding material spread between, is cast on top of them.

When the last layer of panels are cured the sections will be put in place by the tilt-up method. This is the same method used in constructing Bill Cook Gym.

With the walls in place it will take 14 more days of drying and shrinkage before the cement columns tying the panels together can be poured.

VETERANS CLUB

The first official meeting of the newly organized Veterans Club was held Tuesday, with Ben Liberman of the Orange County Veterans Office there to answer questions of the members.

Owen Brown, acting president announced that the next meeting is scheduled for Tuesday, March 12. It will be an oranzizational meeting.

DON-Y

Don Y officers for the spring semester will be Dave Lazear, president; Jack Whitaker and Deanna Trumpy, co-vice presidents; and Barbara Kramp, secretary. Lazear is succeeding Dale Fowler as president.

COLLEGE PLAYERS

According to Bill Glassman, College Players president, the club is busily engaged in publicity for "Berkeley Square" their forthcoming production. Election of officers will be held at the next regular meeting.

BUSINESS CLUB

According to FBLA president, Mrs. Jane Bennett, the club will visit Dean Witter's Stock Exchange on March 20, and afterward adjourn to a local restaurant for lunch.

Reservations for the lunch to be paid for by the club must be turned in to Sam Dermengian or Mrs. Bennett by next Tuesday.

The Business Club is also considering the formation of an antique business machines exhibit. They will collect the items from various business houses and manufacturers throughout the United States.

PRESS CLUB

Former Press Clubbers Walt Taylor, Betty Lewis, Jim Hunkins, John Dowden, and Gary Butler are all studying at San Jose State College this semester.

Walt was last semester's president as well as managing editor of El Don, and Betty was a princess for Homecoming. Gary Butler served as editor of Tavern Post last year, while Jim Hunkins was business manager for El Don. John Dowden is an ex-El Don managing editor.

Faculty Group Starts Award Selections

Selection has started on the Second Annual Alumni Achievement Awards to be given at commencement this year.

The committee held the first of several meetings yesterday to nominate alumni who have achieved the most outstanding success in their chosen fields.

From those selected by the committee three will be elected by the faculty to speak at commencement and receive a parchment certificate.

The three outstanding alumni honored last year were: Dr. Carl Hagge, '23, chairman of Germanic languages, UCLA; Claude Hayward, '23, atomic physicist, General Electric Company, Schenectady, N.Y.; S. Smith Griswold, '30, air pollution control director for Los Angeles county.

67 Pints Donated For Blood Drive

Sixty-seven SAC students donated their blood to the American Red Cross Monday. The bloodmobile, which comes to Santa Ana College annually, set up its equipment in the east wing of the gym.

Of the seventy-seven SAC men and women who applied, ten were rejected because of age, weight, or condition of blood.

LAS HIDALGAS

Las Hidasgas members met in the home of Miss Patti Fickes on Monday, Feb. 27. Business discussed included the planning and making of decorations for the Business Education Days banquet, Feb. 28. Lenten refreshments were provided by Mrs. Fickes and Pat, with Miss Frances Egge, advisor, serving the punch.

The next evening meeting is scheduled for the home of Vera Schmetgen.

BOOK ORDER TOPS $1,700

Miss Ruth Bradley, SAC librarian, has placed two orders for books totaling $1700, preparing for the college's new $300,000 library planned by the Santa Ana Board of Education.

Included in the books that will soon arrive at the library is Bernstein's much discussed reincarnation story, SEARCH FOR BRIDEY MURPHY.

For those who have no recollection of their other life, if any, and wishing a background for this one, Miss Bradley recommends SEARCHING FOR YOUR ANCESTORS.

SCROLLS FROM THE DEAD SEA, the story of the crumbling Biblical scrolls found in caves near the Dead Sea, and the 1956 WHO'S WHO represent opposite eras of time, while Lily Dache's GLAMOUR BOOK handles a timeless subject.

Tavern Post Copy Edited For Publishing

Tavern Post, SAC literary magazine, will be distributed after Easter vacation. All material has been turned in and it will be printed near the end of March.

Material for the Tavern Post includes: short stories, poetry, and plays. All SAC students were eligible to submit their work to the Tavern Post.

The magazine is sponsored by Tavern Tattlers, literary club on campus. It was started 27 years ago and has been published almost every year except during World War II.

Trackmen Face Track Powers In AAU Relays

By Jim Davis

Don trackmen get their first look this year at the collected Southern California track powers tomorrow, the occasion being the SPA AAU Relays held at East Los Angeles Junior College.

This will be the cindermen's second outing of the year, after they were eased out by LBCC, 59 1/2-62 1/2, last week.

The Dons' biggest threat will be in the distance relays. The shallowness of the squad will force Coach John Ward to forfeit several events and spread his men rather thinly in others.

Santa Ana entrants in the 880 and 440 yard relays will be Jerry Matney, Ron Contreras, David Krowel and Joe Kocurek.

The mile relay will be run by Kent Scholten, Rod Jones, Jim Giyer and John Kershaw. Giyer, Kershaw, Bob Coon and Lee Mathews will be the SAC representatives in the two mile relay.

The Dons will participate in only three field events, the high jump, broad jump and shot put. The high jumping task will fall to David Haven, and Rod Jones, Joe Kocurek and Joel Habener will broad jump.

The pole vault will be entered by Bill Hammond, and Dave Whalen will throw the shot put.

The Dons' opening meet signified a trouble that could be a deciding factor in SAC's State Championship defense. Although the Don squad scored well as a whole, Long Beach followed them by taking a big percentage of seconds and thirds, and the Vikings had only to blank the Dons in one or two events to win the meet.

Santa Ana College's field event contestants did better than expected against Long Beach and the distance cindermen came through as expected. The sprints and hurdles probably hurt SAC the most, and Coach Ward stated that the sprints will probably hamper his squad all season.

EC CHAMPS TOP STARS

San Bernardino's Eastern Conference cage champions continued their supremacy over their league rivals by downing the other school's best players collectively last week in an All-Star game, 70-65.

Both of the two Dons playing in the All-Star lineup, Lee Mathews and Jim Stanley, broke into the scoring column with 3 and 8 points respectively.

DON RALLY IN NINTH INNING DROPS CITRUS, 7-4

The Don horsehiders poured on a three-run rally in the ninth inning to bounce the Citrus Owls, 7-4, last Friday afternoon.

SAC capitalized on a hit batter, two errors, two fielder's choice plays and a single by Gene Hunden to break a ninth inning tie of 4-4.

Charles Berryman pitched the first seven innings of the contest and was relieved by Al Banks for the last two. Banks received the credit for the win.

Early Lead

The Dons jumped to an early lead with a score in the opening inning, and added two more runs in the third and still another in the sixth.

Citrus managed to ring the scoreboard twice in the third and once each in the seventh and eighth to set the stage for the tie-breaking rally.

Dons Outthit

SAC was outthit by the Owls, 8-5, but placed the safeties well. The five Don hits were collected by Bob Hunden, Gene Hunden, Don Radford, Don Fuentes and

The game was the first contest of the season for both ball clubs, and neither team looked too good on the field.

The clubs are scheduled to meet again this afternoon at Memorial Park.

League Opens 20th

Santa Ana has three more practice tilts before delving into league play. The conference opener will be played against Fullerton on the latter's diamond.

This year's squad shows a vast improvement over the '55 edition. Last year's team failed to turn in a very impressive record, but better things are hoped for during the current season.

The box score:

Citrus	002 000 110—4
Santa Ana	102 001 003—7

Harlem Greats Will Play Here

Goose Tatum and Marquis Haynes, at the lead of the fabulous Harlem Magicians, stop at Bill Cook Gym tomorrow night for an exhibition of basketball. Their oppositions will be the New York Olympians.

The Magicians are on a barnstorming tour through Southern California. The Negro troupe was formed by Tatum and Haynes after they split with Abe Saperstein's famous Harlem Globetrotters, and have been playing before sellout crowds ever since.

The Olympians will be led by Bill Spivey, 7'1" former All-American from Kentucky.

If Tatum and Haynes perform as usual, the score may become a secondary matter to the clowning Magicians' showmanship that has delighted crowds the world over.

Game time is 7:30 p.m. Saturday night. The admission will be $2.50.

LACC FAVORITES

Los Angeles City College, the top junior college team in the nation, opens as the odds-on favorite tonight at the Fullerton College gym, meeting Fresno College at 10 p.m. in the opening round of the California Junior College Championship Basketball Tournament.

Title winners of the eight junior college conferences in the state are entered in this "Tournament of Champions." In addition to LACC and Fresno are: LA Harbor Antelope Valley, San Bernardino Valley, West Contra Costa, Vallejo and East Contra Costa.

The Cubs of Los Angeles City College are riding the crest of a thirty-five game winning streak, a national record. The Cubs have met Fresno twice previously and downed their opponent both times. They are favored and picked to go on and win the tourney.

Don Nine Host Citrus Owls In Baseball Tilt

By Connie Moore

SAC's diamondmen engage Citrus College today at Memorial Park with a 7-4 victory earned a week ago over the Owls already under their belts.

The scheduled nine inning contest is slated to start at 3:00. Al Banks will start on the mound for the Dons.

Banks worked the last two innings of the previous Citrus encounter after relieving Charles Berryman, and was credited with the win. He'll be trying for his second victory in as many starts today.

Tempers flared on both teams in the first contest between the two squads but both clubs have played another game since the incident and no emotional problems are expected today.

Faulty fielding on the Owl team was instrumental in SAC's opening game victory, as Citrus outthit the Dons, 8 safeties to 5. A ninth inning rally mingled with a few Owl mistakes brought about a 7-4 final score.

The probable starting lineups for today's contest will be very similar to the opening lineups a week ago except for the starting pitchers.

For Citrus will be: Purbaugh, ss; White rf; McConnell, 2b;

Santa Ana will start: Fuentes ss; Ellis, lf; Foster, 3b; Dowling cf; Radford, rf; Grizzelle, 1st b; Gene Hunden, 2b; Bob Hunden, catcher; and Banks, pitcher.
